

CENTRE RISK MANAGEMENT SUMMARY

Cobnor Activities Centre recognises the need for visiting groups to assure themselves that the quality and safety of our outdoor activity provision, our risk analysis and management systems; are adequately robust. The purpose of this document is to help group organisers by providing the information usually requested.

Adventure Activities License

At Cobnor Activities Centre, we believe that the safety of outdoor activities is best assessed by the experience and expertise of the Adventure Activities Licensing Service (AALS). Cobnor Activities Centre is inspected every two years and holds a licence issued by AALS for the safe conduct of activities it delivers, as required by law. AALS is part of the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) who are the Adventure Activities Licensing Authority. The inspection process covers the safety management of activities, which includes risk assessments, staff qualifications and the maintenance of equipment associated with the activities. The inspectors are experts in the field of outdoor activity delivery and the inspection our rigorous. Cobnor Activities Centre Trust undertakes to perform to the requirements and guidance of the Licensing Service and its inspectors and is also subject to spot inspections. www.aals.org.uk

Cobnor Activities Centre Trust holds: Licence Number L9462 Reference Number R0388

The specified activities on this licence are:

- Kayaking (Tidal waters)
- Open Canoeing (Tidal Waters)
- Sailing (Tidal waters)
- Improvised Rafting (Tidal waters)
- Hill Walking & Mountaineering

In addition, AALS can (and do) include in their inspection non-licensable activities and unrelated activities, to establish whether a “culture of safety” exists within the organisation.

Additional Quality Assurance Schemes associated with the provision of adventurous outdoor activities.

Additionally, Cobnor Activities Centre Trusts has been approved to deliver training and accredited courses by the following individual National Governing Bodies which are regularly reviewed and the centre additional inspected.

These assessments

- Royal Yachting Association (RYA) www.rya.org.uk

each activity. These are held at the centre and are available for inspection at any time. These are updated regularly and reviewed annually. In addition, the daily risks are assessed at a morning meetings to take into account the forecast weather, staff qualifications and equipment availability. Dynamic risk assessments are carried out by activity delivery staff before and during the activity to take into account local conditions and other continually changing factors. All visitors to the centre are asked to acknowledge the residual risk inherent in adventurous activities prior to their visit however acknowledging the benefits each activity and experience brings.

TRANSFER OF RESPONSIBILITIES

The visiting group leader has overall responsibility for their group at all times. The Head of Centre has responsibility for the programme, equipment and facilities and for operating the Centre to legal requirements. Cobnor Activities Centre staff will be responsible for the safety and management of participants on all activities provided by the Trust. It is essential that visiting staff provide information regarding individuals and offer appropriate support to enable Cobnor Activities Centre Staff to properly perform their duties. Visiting staff retain a duty of care at all times for participants under 18. If a participant is withdrawn from the “led” activity for any reason, then the responsibility for those withdrawn will revert to the visiting staff. If, at any time, visiting staff are unhappy about an activity it is essential that they make their concerns known to Cobnor Activities Centre staff at the earliest opportunity. Visiting staff may insist that any activity does not continue on the grounds of physical or psychological harm, or that the activity is not commensurate with their planned outcomes.

SUPERVISION WHEN NOT ON ACTIVITIES

Visiting staff are responsible for the supervision of their groups when not in a structured session led by Cobnor Activities Centre Staff. Cobnor Activities Centre Trust has a member of staff with a first-aid qualification while on duty for assistance or in the event of an emergency.

CHILD PROTECTION

Enhanced ‘Disclosure & Barring Scheme’ (DBS) checks are carried out on all Cobnor Activities Centre staff including long-term and regular volunteers and trainees.

SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS

All external doors can be locked to prevent entry by an intruder. Access is also limited to the centre via locked gates.

FIRE PROTECTION

Cobnor Activities Centre Trust complies with current fire safety legislation and we are inspected on a regular basis by West Sussex Fire Service to ensure our buildings meets the current safety standards.

INSURANCE

Cobnor Activities Centre Trust holds Public Liability insurance (policy number XAO-272002-1923) with Zurich Municipal), as required by law. It has a limit of £10 million indemnity for any one incident. We strongly recommend participants make their own provision for personal accident; travel and cancellation cover should they consider it appropriate.

FOOD SAFETY

Cobnor Activities Centre Trust has been inspected under the Food Hygiene Rating Scheme, and has a 5 - Star rating (Very Good). Our rating can be checked at ratings.food.gov.uk

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

We will take all reasonable steps to ensure the health & safety of your group whilst at Cobnor Activities Centre is safeguarded. However, you should be aware that certain inherent risks remain, which are integral to the activity and which cannot be eliminated completely. The risk of serious injury is extremely remote but some activities may result in minor injuries; e.g. grazes, sprains and bruises. The level of risk in participation in our activities is no greater than that associated with, for example, normal play activity. This is not a ‘disclaimer’ but serves to inform group leaders about what participants may experience.
